

NEW JOB FOR 'MOTHER,' CAN COOK IN SCHOOL

Crusader for Hot Lunches for Pupils
Explains Plan.

If mothers of Washington school children haven't enough to do already, here is something new to which they can devote themselves.

Miss Elizabeth Askew, president of the League of Parents' Clubs of Tampa, Fla., is leading a crusade for hot lunches for school children. She states that, notwithstanding the high cost of living, it is possible to give a luncheon of good meat, soup, salad, vegetables and dessert all for 5 cents.

"You can even make money on it," said Miss Askew.

The plan is simple. There are parents' clubs attached to each school. Members of these organizations in Tampa see to the preparation of the meals. The school board gives permission to install a kitchen and the mothers cook and serve the food.

"Out of the money made on our 5-cent lunches, we pay the installments on our stoves, cooking utensils, china and silver, so it is no expense to the school board," said Miss Askew.

In addition to providing food for the students, the parents' clubs in Tampa provide amusements for them at night in the form of dances and vaudeville shows.

Miss Askew will address the Columbia Heights Parents' League at its next meeting in an endeavor to inaugurate the Tampa system in this city.

VETERAN REPUBLICAN STRONGLY FOR WILSON

James Kennedy, Former Congressman from Ohio, Praises President.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Youngstown, Ohio, Oct. 6.—James Kennedy, who for four successive terms represented McKinley's old district in Congress, is an advocate of President Wilson's re-election. A lifelong Republican, he has publicly announced in a letter to the Youngstown Vindicator his complete abandonment of the Republican party and its national Presidential candidate.

The letter is in part as follows:

"I think that the Congressional action taken when the Adamson bill was passed is altogether the best piece of legislation that has been enacted by Congress during my lifetime. It recognizes completely for the first time, the right of Congress under the commerce clause of the Constitution, to fully and completely regulate the nation's great highways. It recognizes that the trainmen are public servants, that the public pays their wages. The railroad corporations are only trustees.

"The regulation of the public's own roads is peculiarly the business of the people in America, and every other question in this campaign dwindle into insignificance compared with this issue. Briefly stated, as I conceive it, it is: Shall the people at last be given the right to have something to say about that which is peculiarly the people's own business, to-wit: Management and regulation of their public highways?"

"Congress long ago should have taken charge and completely regulated the instruments of interstate commerce, and great highways of the nation between the cities. And this belated movement in the right direction must not be repudiated now by the people unless they expect to be slaves of 'invisible government' forever."

LOVE BY TELEPHONE FEATURE OF ROMANCE

Pajamas, Black Silk Tights and Kisses
Are Mentioned.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Oct. 6.—In spite of a divorce suit decided against him early this year, Frederick William Hunter, wealthy lawyer and antique collector of this city and a frequent visitor to the city, is still in love with his former wife, Mrs. Anna Belle Hunter, who is now in the city.

Before a jury in Justice Cohan's court, the case was heard. Hunter, who is now in the city, is still in love with his former wife, Mrs. Anna Belle Hunter, who is now in the city.

The court room was crowded with well dressed women who surrounded Mr. Hunter and comforted her when Mr. Norwood told the jury how he would show that Mrs. Hunter had received the critic in her dressing room while she was attired in black silk tights. All the principals in the case are either 50 or over and gray haired; but age, Mr. Norwood told the jury, had not cooled Kerfoot's ardor. He referred to the situation of the Hunters and Kerfoot as an "extraordinary golden triangle" in which Hunter was the only unwilling angle.

VISCOUNT BRYCE BEGS AID FOR ARMENIANS

The following cablegram from Viscount Bryce, chairman of the English committee for Armenian aid, was received yesterday by Henry B. Macfarland, chairman of the Washington committee.

"All civilized nations able to assist Armenians today should know that the need is extremely urgent. Several hundred thousands of exiles who survived the horrors of deportation are now perishing of exposure and starvation in the Arabian desert."

"Latest reports from neutral eyewitnesses describe terrible conditions. These people throw themselves in the grave and bury themselves in the earth; women going mad, eating grass; parents putting children out of misery, digging their own graves and waiting death."

"The future of the Armenian nation depends upon saving the refugees in Russia, but this requires worldwide assistance for feeding, clothing, housing, and repatriation."

"A book telling the whole story is just appearing with fuller statement. We feel sure that American generosity will again respond to the call of humanity."

JAG PATIENT ACQUIRES MYSTIFYING FORTUNE

Rufus A. Crenshaw, of Falls Church, about to undergo an operation, handed his wallet to Dr. George B. Fadley in Emergency Hospital yesterday. Dr. Fadley promptly placed the pocketbook in the pocket of an overcoat he supposed belonged to Mr. Crenshaw.

A few minutes later an unidentified alcoholic patient, restored to seeming normality, took his own coat, with Mr. Crenshaw's pocketbook in the pocket, and departed.

Mr. Crenshaw lost $5, a note for $100 and a receipt for $1,000. The police are looking for the alcoholic, quite convinced that he has suffered a relapse.

OLD FOLKS NEED "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

Salts, Calomel, Pills Act on Bowels
Like Pepper Act on Nostrials.

Enjoy Life! Don't Stay Bilious,
Sick, Headachy and Constipated.

Get a 10-cent box now.
Most old people must give to the bowels some special help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Adv.

GREAT BALLOON RACE TO BE STARTED TODAY

Oklahoma Town Crowded on Eve of National Contest.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 6.—All arrangements are completed for the start of the national balloon race from this city tomorrow. Muskogee is filled with visitors in attendance on the annual fair, and the indications are that the crowd tomorrow will be the largest ever seen here.

The race is to be conducted under the auspices of the National Balloon Association, which has arranged the competition to keep up interest in this country until the close of the European war, when it is expected the international flights will be revived. This is the first year in which the start has been made from a city as small as Muskogee, but conditions abroad have prevented foreign entries, so that the great natural gas supply here for filling the big gas bags was sufficient inducement, together with this city's central location in the southwest.

The balloons will be released at five-minute intervals. The entrants include Capt. H. E. Honeywell, piloting the Eagle; Sam W. F. Assman, in the Miss Sophie; E. Cole, in the Miss Muskogee; P. J. McCullough, in the St. Louis IV; and John Berry, in the Million Population Club.

COPPER MAKES SLIGHT GAINS ON EXCHANGE

Does Not Respond Equal to Expectations, However.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Oct. 6.—The local trade marked up the price of copper today to 28 cents for January delivery, and corresponding levels for the later months, and in London electrolytic rose to 142, a gain of 1 in the day. The copper market in this city is fairly active, and they were expected to, however, and displayed a most lamentable indifference to the good things said about them.

Later on, though, this rise may be communicated to the stock market and then, if prices move up rapidly, much will be made of it.

Commenting on the recent decision against the Miami Copper Company for alleged violation of patent rights, Clark, Childs & Co. say today: "This decision, while nominally against Miami, is really just as much against other copper mining concerns employing the same methods, and was prosecuted as a test case. We are officially informed that the decision of the directors in interest have already set aside from profits a sum necessary to write off additional charges which would be involved by confirmation of the decision in higher courts."

It was intimated that the decision of the directors in interest have already set aside from profits a sum necessary to write off additional charges which would be involved by confirmation of the decision in higher courts."

THREE STEAMERS SUNK BY ENEMY SUBMARINES

(By The International News Service.)

London, Oct. 6.—Reports of the sinking of three steamships, two of them neutral, were received by London today. They were the Greek ship Samos, 1,136 tons; the Norwegian steamer Cedric, 1,128 tons; and the British vessel Isle of Hastings, 1,575 tons.

They were apparently sunk by submarines.

NOBLEMAN FOUND IN JUNGLE.

U. S. Marines Rescue Proud Count,
Starving, in Nicaragua.

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 6.—Too proud to beg and finding himself on the verge of starvation because of the impoverishment of his family in Europe, Count Franz Lazarini, well known in Central America, went to a jungle near here and kept himself alive for five months by eating monkey flesh, roots and berries.

A party of United States marines on a big-game hunting expedition discovered the count and brought him back to the capital. The count, half starved and nearly mad because of the privations he had suffered, fought his rescuers and begged them to let him remain in the jungle. He is now being nursed at the barracks in the American Legation.

TWO DIE IN RACE WAR.

Whites Battle Negroes in Montana
Town.

Billings, Mont., Oct. 6.—Two white men were killed and one wounded in a race war between whites and negroes near Ninili, on the Great Northern Railroad, in Montana, according to reports received here today.

Seven negroes are said to have done the shooting. Five are under arrest. Two white men are held at Cushman.

FIVE "TANKS" DESTROYED.

Germans.

Five of these armored arks have already been destroyed, according to the military expert, who adds: "The British land fleet will soon be composed of wrecks."

Says Bremen Is Captured.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Dr. Frederick E. Farrington, of the United States Bureau of Education, addressing the Association of Commerce, said that out of 13,000,000 for eigners in this country 3,000,000 cannot speak English.

Can't Speak English.

Newport News, Oct. 6.—Capt. Reavley, of the steamship North Point, has brought into port the often-repeated story that the German merchant submarine Bremen has been captured. He says the Bremen was caught in a net in the English Channel about seven weeks ago.

HUGHES VISITS SCENE OF CHILDHOOD TIMES

Shows Wife Spot Where Favorite Cat
Had Fought One Day.

(By The International News Service.)

New York, Oct. 6.—Charles E. Hughes today re-lived some of the happiest days of his childhood. With Mrs. Hughes, the Republican Presidential candidate visited his father's old home place at 164 Elm street, Newark. The trip from Mont Clair was made by motor.

"Yes, there's the place," exclaimed Mr. Hughes reminiscingly, as the auto drew up in front of the old house, surrounded by aged elm trees.

It was in the Newark home that the candidate lived from 1869 to 1874. Alighting from the machine Mr. Hughes first showed his wife the spot where his favorite pet cat had a fight one day. Next he pointed out a room where he took music lessons.

"I shall never forget that room as long as I live," he said.

Glancing at the house on the adjoining lot, Mr. Hughes recalled an important incident of his boyhood. He said:

"I was playing on that lot over there one day with my little chum. There was no house there then. A man came walking along the road, and my playmate tried his marksmanship. He aimed a large chestnut burr at the stranger's head. It struck the man squarely on the cheek. I stood right here (indicating the spot) laughing."

The burr must have stung the fellow badly, for he came straight over and knocked me down. I rolled all the way down to the foot of the little embankment."

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Hughes were the guests at dinner of Charles E. Hughes, Jr., at Mont Clair, N. J.

A citizens' committee of 200 will give an informal reception to the Presidential candidate and his wife tomorrow afternoon in Mont Clair. Representatives from all of the clubs will attend. Residents of Mont Clair have been requested to display American flags from their homes in honor of the occasion.

FIVE FLEE WORKHOUSE, STEALING MOTORBOAT

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, Oct. 6.—Five inmates of the branch workhouse on Hart's Island escaped from the institution early today and fled toward the Connecticut shore aboard the motorboat Jacques, owned by the Baxter estate, which was moored about 200 feet from the island shore. Acting warden Donovan missed the men, and searchers revealed that the motorboat was missing.

He asked the police to send out a general alarm for the men, who he said were James Rigeran, 24 years old; Victor Holt, 21; Samuel Hoffman, 40; Philmore Terone, 31; and James Burke, 40.

WOMEN TO STUMP IN BOAT.

Robert E. Lee, and will leave Point Pleasant Saturday with a corps of women speakers and stacks of campaign literature for a cruise up the Kanawha River as far as Montgomery, with stops at various towns.

Mrs. T. J. Cullen, of Point Pleasant, will act as pilot and captain of the little craft.

FRENCH EMBARGO MODIFIED.

Amendments to the French export embargo which will materially aid American manufacturers, were announced in a cablegram from the American consul general at Paris, made public yesterday. The changes lift the embargo on the export to allied and American countries of fatty acids, borax and boric acid, various metallic chlorides, gelatines and glue, starches, lead manufactures, sodium and some kinds of paint.

The embargo on these articles was lifted, according to the announcement, because it was found to embarrass neutral and friendly commerce unnecessarily.

English Savings in Teapots.

A considerable amount of gold, says the London Times, is being hoarded by people who bank their incomes and business takings and who are anxious to be ready to meet emergency demands, but it is probable that a much larger quantity is stored up in rural parishes throughout the country.

The money, which is added to from time to time, lies unproductive in the house, concealed in wooden boxes under the bed, teapots, vases or in tin boxes. It was stated recently in a local paper in Devonshire that persons who went about the country districts knew instances of from $50 to $400 being kept in bedrooms, the owners of these dead reserves being in no way tempted by a per cent bonds. It has, in fact, been the custom in many families for the family fortune, such as it is, to be handed to the heirs in cash.

In certain rustic minds there seems to be not only a distrust of the bank and postoffice, but an ineradicable objection outside persons knowing the state of their finances. It is not yet realized that a practice which may be comparatively innocuous in time of peace is positively harmful in time of war.

MISS ASKEW CRITICISES WOMAN PARTY LEADERS

Tells Democratic Suffragists They Imperil Own Cause.

Claiming that they are endeavoring to influence the women of the country to vote "solidly" according to their convictions, but merely to defeat the President, and dubbing them the most dangerous enemies of the true cause of women's rights, Miss Elizabeth Askew, of Tampa, Fla., last night denounced the members of the Woman's Party on the Hughes campaign train, now touring the West, before the Kate Gordon Chapter of the Southern States Suffrage Conference, at 1377 Rhode Island avenue northwest.

Miss Askew described the Republican candidates as "contemptible swashbucklers," who are endeavoring to "rekindle the flame of sectional hostility."

"What we want are men who will throw aside party prejudice and join the ranks with Henry Ford and other independent thinkers," said the speaker.

The Federation of Women's Democratic Clubs will soon occupy their headquarters at the southeast corner of Fifteenth and F streets.

The officers of the Kate Gordon Chapter are: Mrs. Wesley Martin Stoner, president; Mrs. Robert Jones, first vice president; Mrs. Esther N. Emmart, second vice president; Mrs. Stewart Mosby Coleman, secretary, and Mrs. E. G. Siggers, treasurer.

DERVIN HEADS NEW CLUB.

Georgetown University Republican Organization Launched.

Georgetown University Republican Club was organized at a mass meeting of students last night in the law school. The club will affiliate with the League of Republican College Clubs. The following officers were elected:

President, J. M. Dervin, vice president, J. J. Day, secretary, J. C. Garraghy, treasurer, Norman E. Landrau, graduate advisor, N. T. Whitaker.

A rally is to be held at the law school next week.

Thirty-two States have laws similar to the District statute.

"The District law," said Mr. LaVigne last night, "may be considered one of the best defined and clearest of them all, because of the absence of one word 'knowingly.' Most of the laws, copied after the New York law, contains this word, which makes prosecution difficult."

"This conviction by a jury indicates that the public has certain rights which it can enforce. I believe that the results of this trial will be widely felt. The defendant complained during the trial that he was grossly injured by publication of the allegations. It is this publicity from which we expect the public to derive the most benefit."

Mr. LaVigne will leave the city at once for other places where he has cases pending. Recently he appeared against the Scranton Dry Goods Company, Scranton, Pa., in the magistrate's court of this city. The defendant was bound over to the grand jury under bonds.

Following the conviction in Police Court yesterday of Henry C. Southwick for violating the "fake ad" law recently passed by Congress, other warrants probably will be issued in the near future.

C. E. LaVigne, who was the principal witness for prosecution, testified during the trial that he was collecting evidence for the American Fair Trade League and had investigated more than forty stores in Washington. His data, he said, had been placed in the United States district attorney's hands.

The Southwick jury was out four minutes. Judge Mulwoney sentenced Southwick to serve sixty days in jail and imposed a fine of $300. He then suspended the jail sentence. Southwick gave bond and said the fine would be paid today. The defendant was charged with placing fraudulent valuations on goods offered at "reduced prices." The trial lasted three days. Southwick testified it did not hurt his conscience to sell a customer a Palm Beach suit for $12 which cost him $250.
